MUSIC CALENDAR 1986

- January 10-12 GUITAR CRAFT X - This is the first Guitar Craft weekend, and is available for anyone who has attended a GC course. This weekend will focus on the Right Hand.
- January 17-19 GUITAR CRAFT XI - This, the second weekend, will concentrate on the Left Hand technique. The two weekends are complementary, but Crafty Guitarists can attend either or both. The refresher weekends are a response to requests by those who wish to remain in touch with the GC program but for various reasons are unable to come for the longer courses. The weekends start on Friday evening and you should expect to leave early - mid Sunday afternoon. The cost for one weekend will be $125.00, for both $225.00. We are asking for a $50.00 non-refundable registration fee.
- 6:00
- February 16-20 GUITAR CRAFT XII - This is a Level One, the eighth introduction to Guitar Craft. It is open to anyone who meets the normal requirements, and also Crafty Guitarists who are wishing to refresh themselves right from the beginning. The seminar starts on Sunday evening and ends on Friday night. The fee will be $625.00, we are requesting a $100.00 non-refundable registration fee.
- February 24
March 1 MUSIC FOR NON-MUSICIANS II - The success of the Non-Musicians weekend has drawn this ambitious response: a week of music for the musically aspirant. Anyone at all is eligible for this, a previous Non-Musician, a Crafty Guitarist, an ASCE group in toto, a friend of any of the above, or none of the above at all. The seminar will start on Monday evening and will end on Saturday night. The cost will be $425.00 and we are asking for a $75.00 non-refundable registration fee. The proceeds from this seminar will go to improving the Mansion.
- April 20-
May 4 GUITAR CRAFT XIII - Crafty Guitarists who were not able to attend the first Level Two asked for an other course of this standard in the Spring. This is it. This seminar is open to anyone who has attended a previous Guitar Craft Course, subject to my approval. The challenge for this is currently being organized. Those who have attended the first Level Two are also eligible. The seminar begins on April 19 in the evening and ends approximately on May 4. The fee has to be decided but will probably be $800.00 or $1000.00

If you are interested in attending one of these seminars please contact us as soon as possible.
